PLEASE TAKE NOTE:

- We are not yet sure who next week's preacher will be. It may even be Nathan for the first time in nearly 3 months, but we thought that last week too!

- The Story Sharing Event that was scheduled for next Sunday has been cancelled, and we are looking for more story tellers. Anyone can do it, and everyone should sometime. It is easier than ever at present, because for an online session, you don’t have to think about a venue or catering. We aim to hold at least one a month, so please contact Samara with your offer, or to learn more about what would be involved.

- We intend to hold our annual Covenanting Rite during our worship service on Sunday 5 July. Info about our covenant is available in the Members Guide on our church website, and there will be more information coming by email this week.

- Those who might be feeling isolated and anxious during this time of lockdown are urged to join some of our daily prayer liturgies. There is a lot of good group pastoral care taking place in these gatherings. Nathan is currently trying to work reduced hours. He is still available for pastoral care needs, but step up and let him know - don’t wait for him to come looking.

This church meets on the traditional lands of the the Yalukit Willum of the Boon Wurrung language group of the Greater Kulin Nation. We express our gratitude at the sharing of this land; our sorrow for the personal, spiritual, and cultural cost of that sharing; and the hope that we may walk together in harmony in the spirit of reconciliation.
