

“Be on your guard against the leaven of self-serving teaching by religious leaders.”

- Jesus (Matt 16:6)

PLEASE TAKE NOTE:

- Next Sunday’s visiting preacher is the wonderful Irish poet and theologian, Pádraig Ó Tuama, joining us live from his home in Ireland. The following week, we are looking forward to a second visit by Lina Toth, from Glasgow.
- On Sunday 1st November, we will hold our usual worship service at 5:00pm, but that day is also All Saints Day which we always celebrate with a joint service with three other local churches. This year that combined service will be a pre-recorded Anglican Evensong and will be made available on YouTube anytime from 7:00pm.
- Planning ahead, it is now clear that we will still be worshipping online by the end of the year. Our main Christmas service will be held at 8:00pm on Christmas Eve, 24 December. It is a big joyous liturgy with lots of carol singing, so expect to be there a bit longer than usual.
- Those who might be feeling isolated and anxious during this time of lockdown are urged to join some of our daily prayer liturgies. There is good group pastoral care taking place there.

This church meets on the traditional lands of the the Yalukit Willum of the Boon Wurrung language group of the Greater Kulin Nation. We express our gratitude at the sharing of this land; our sorrow for the personal, spiritual, and cultural cost of that sharing; and the hope that we may walk together in harmony in the spirit of reconciliation.
